

Summary

Stephen McGrady has served in technology vision and leadership roles, including Chief Information Officer (CIO), Vice President of Services, and General Manager, for over 20 years. Since 2006, he has focused on executive management consulting that enables business clients to improve performance through intelligent use of information technologies.

Consulting Areas

Information Technology Systems
Enterprise Architecture
M&A and Post-Merger Integration

Business Continuity Planning
Disaster Recovery
Security

Data Center & Network Design
Data Warehousing
Process/Data Modeling

Expertise

Strategic and Systems Planning
Risk Management
Business Intelligence and Analytics

Large-Scale Program Management
P&L and Budgeting
Professional Services

Performance Optimization
Facilities Management
Team Building

Industry Verticals Served

Telecom (RBOC & wireless), Internet (information services), Healthcare (R&D), Software (virtualization, encryption, business intelligence), Hardware (semiconductor & storage), Finance (mortgage servicing), Management Consulting

Representative Experiences

Consultant to the Chief Security Officer for a supply-chain systems provider. Oversaw security compliance program and implemented tools for WIN, Mac, and Linux. Passed IRAP security audit required by DHA in Australia.

Consultant to the CIO for a consumer product company. Leveraged CIOPS proprietary methodology to conduct rapid Risk Assessment and Business Impact Assessment to update their Business Continuity Planning (BCP) program.

Consultant to the CIO and the EVP for Facilities for a semiconductor / IP company. Developed and implemented BCP program, including Business Impact Assessment and tabletop simulation training.

Consultant to the VP for Facilities for a biopharmaceutical company. Expert review, best practices, and stress testing of their BCP program.

Consultant to the CIO for a global financial solutions provider for real estate and mortgage services. Chartered and delivered projects to improve data center virtualization, SAN storage performance, DR/BCP capability, etc.

M&A Due Diligence and Post-Merger Integration for the COO and VP Sales Strategy at the leader in business infrastructure virtualization. Developed M&A playbook to improve speed and quality of DD and PMI activities.

Consultant to the CFO of one of America's leading wholesale home & garden companies, responsible for enterprise architecture, business intelligence, ERP system selection & implementation, POS system implementation.

Consultant to the CFO and the Board of Directors of a global security software company, the leader in email and data encryption. Identified shortcomings in handling customer & partner data, then ran RFP to select an ERP system.

Executive Director at Pacific Bell managing a $23-49M portfolio of Bellcore and AT&T systems planning & development projects, enabling RBOC conversion to digital switching, signaling, and transmission.

Recent Clients

SAP Ariba, Juul, Rambus, Nektar Therapeutics, Altisource, Nurserymen's Exchange, PGP Corporation, MediMatch

Past Employers

VMware, Network Appliance, Business Objects, KPMG Consulting, AirTouch Cellular, University of California Berkeley (Haas School of Business), American Management Systems, Pacific Bell, New England Telephone

Education, Training & Certifications

MIT Sloan School of Management, Cambridge, MA - MS in Management. Concentration in Information Technology
Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH - BA, magna cum laude. Double major in Mathematics, Russian Studies

Certified Business Continuity Professional (CBCP) & Auditor (CBCA), Disaster Recovery Institute (DRI) Intl.